

Changes to Constitution

Amend 5.2

From

The Committee will be elected from the membership by an election process and thereafter voted on and announced at each AGM.

To

Committee members will be appointed from the membership through an application process overseen by the Office Bearers. Applicants may be invited to attend an informal discussion as part of the process. Appointments may be made throughout the year and any changes to Committee membership will be reported at the AGM.

Amend 5.6

From

Up to, but no more than, five committee members per year will stand down, and are eligible for re-election, to allow for applications from new members.

To

Up to three committee places each year will normally be made available to allow for applications from new members.

Where the committee has reached its maximum size of 32 members, the office bearers will agree the arrangements for creating vacancies, which may include asking committee member(s) to stand down.

Committee members who stand down will be eligible to apply again.
